Dear Parents and Friends

You are invited to our latest musical event: our Senior Recital. We have held this annually since 2004, so it probably now qualifies as a traditional event. Many of you will have attended concerts here before, and will be aware of the depth of musical ability in this school. This evening will not feature our orchestra, swing band or other groups of substantial numbers, whose performances you may well have seen in December last year. Their next opportunity to shine will be in concerts in February and March, and, of course, in the Centenary Concert in the Bridgewater Hall in April. Instead, solo performers and smaller groups will be centre stage on this occasion. It is an opportunity for those of our students who are studying music at A level and other students from the Upper School to demonstrate their talents. There will be a variety of music including Romanian dances played on tubas; trombone and guitar solos; music by Bach and Roderigo; Spanish love songs; and original pieces by the group Shooting Pigeons.

The recital will take place on Tuesday February 7th in the Roy Coleman Hall, beginning at 7.30. Tickets are priced £6 for adults, and £4 for students and senior citizens. Refreshments will be served at the back of the Coleman Hall from around 7.10 and there will be a re-fuelling break during the concert. If you would like to attend, please fill in the tear-off slip at the foot of the page and return it to Mr Moran at school, either directly, through your son's Form Tutor or via Reception. Cheques should be made payable to Altrincham Grammar School for Boys. Tickets will be sent home via your son.

We look forward to seeing many of you here on February 7th. As usual, we recommend that you enter by the Heath Road gate and park on the yard at the rear of the school.

Yours sincerely

J. Moran
