CODE OF CONDUCT

You must be available for all matches, injury withstanding. If injured, you must keep your coach fully informed of your progress. You must give your coach full contact details, such as name, date of birth, address, home and emergency contact numbers, as well as medical information at the start of the season.

You must be committed to getting better as an individual in order to complement your team and squad. This does not only take place on practice night.

- You must attend your coaches _ team meeting on Friday.
- You will always have clean, correct kit including boots at all practices and matches
- It is the responsibility of the school to ensure that good manners and courtesy prevail towards the opposition, referee and other officials before, during and after the game.
- Vocal communication by parents, team officials and players on the bench must not, in any way, be directed at the referees or players of the opposing team.
- Captains, coaches and managers should be responsible for their own conduct and the contravention of the Code of Conduct should be included in any report.
- Spectators should be advised, if necessary, of matters relating to their conduct especially insofar as this affects the game in progress.
- Spectators should be kept away from the bench areas at all times and, where possible, should watch from the opposite side of the pitch. The onus is on the home team to take responsibility for spectators and their behaviour.
- Children should remain under the control of the parent / guardian at all times. Small children should not be allowed to wander freely around the perimeter of the pitch whilst games are in progress. Children in push chairs should not be left parked on the side of the pitch. Referees should advise teachers of any abuse of this Code of Conduct.
