Dear Parents/Carers

Year 11 Study Leave May 2019

I am writing to you with regards to the fast approaching GCSE summer examinations. I hope that your son's preparation is going well and that he is taking advantage of the extra revision classes and study skills material on Office 365 that have been made available by subject teachers.

Study Leave for Year 11 this year will begin at the end of lessons on Wednesday 8th May. School will provide a fully staffed quiet study room for this period and it may be that your son would benefit from revising in school rather than at home. There are limited places available for this room and if your son is offered a place there will be strict rules relating to the offer.

If you wish for your son to sign up for the study room please contact Mrs Howell in the Exam Office at phowell@agsb.co.uk so she can collate a register.

I would like to remind Year 11 boys that when they return to school to sit an examination they should continue to follow the school rules and conduct themselves in an appropriate manner, this includes wearing full school uniform. Students will be registered in their exam rooms but if they are in school at any other time they should sign in so that we know they are in the building.

May I take the opportunity to wish your son the best of luck with his revision and his GCSE examinations.

Yours faithfully

Mr C Kidd

Head of Year 11
